

Celebrate summer by throwing an ocean-themed party for your friends! These great ideas will get you started...

MELON BOAT MADNESS!

- WatermelonRed grapes ● Wooden skewer ● Knife
- Piece of decorated card
- Chopping board

Mix the cubes of watermelon

with the red grapes, then place them back into one of the empty halves of watermelon.

First, ask an adult to help you chop the watermelon in half. Then, cut the flesh out of it and slice that into cubes.

Finally, stick the wooden skewer through the piece of card to make the boat's sail and your party treat is ready!

PIAA PARTY

What vou'll need

- Pizza bases Tomato puree Cheese Sliced ham (optional) Vegetables (cherry tomatoes, red pepper, green pepper,
- orange pepper, sweetcorn, courgette) ■ Black olives ■ Chopping board ■ Knife

First, ask an adult to help you cut your pizza base into the shape of a fish. Then, carefully spread some tomato puree on top of the base.

Now, place the cheese evenly on top of the tomato and chop up your vegetables.

Next, lay the veg in stripes on the pizza and ask an adult to place it in the oven for ten minutes. When it's cooked, use an olive as an eye and a mouth — then eat!

OGEAN GOOLER

Why not think of some ocean-themed games to make your party even more fun?!

What vou'll need

- Empty sauce / jam jars
- Lemonade
- Natural blue food
- colouring Straws Drinks umbrellas

First, get your empty jars together, wash them out and carefully remove the labels.

Now, pour in the lemonade and add a few drops of natural blue food colouring.

Finally, add the straw and umbrella, then serve to your mates. They'll love it. Simples!

